Benefits of Owning a Northern Leisure Sauna

"This was an absolutely amazing experience. For people who are new to the sauna world, we received amazing support and guidance through the entire process. From the beginning phase of research all the way to the installation and cleanup, everyone was extremely professional, friendly and took their time with answering all of our questions. The sauna itself is beautiful and amazing quality. The installation/build experience was fantastic and we could really tell how much care the installers took in making everything perfect. We've been in the sauna twice a day since it came and consider it money well spent. If you are looking for a high quality sauna that is extremely well priced and is built, delivered and assembled by people who really take pride in what they do, choose a Northern Leisure Sauna.!"

Nichol Stone

To your Good Health

Sauna benefits consist of four main healing components; heat therapy, breathing easier, hydration of skin and reducing the acne-causing sebum content of our skin. Together, they create an exceptional experience that is both relaxing and incredibly healthy. Using a Northern Leisure Sauna regularly provides physical health benefits beyond just relaxation and pleasure. Heat is pure and simple, yet it can do the most amazing things. Whether you are experiencing joint or muscle pain, have trouble sleeping or are just plain stressed out, even spending time in a sauna can provide therapeutic benefits for just about everyone.

Improve Cardiovascular Health

People who regularly use a sauna find it stimulates the body to release endorphins that significantly reduce stress. Daily sauna use can improve how much oxygen flows to the heart muscle. This may reduce your risk of coronary artery disease (CAD), and people with limited blood flow to the legs (peripheral artery disease) may find they have improved walking endurance and improved their overall cholesterol profile. These benefits can be even more significant when you combine regular sauna use with physical exercise.

Relieve Muscle & Joint Pain

In recent years, the use of saunas by athletes has skyrocketed and Northern Leisure is now set to lead the way in offering these benefits to a broader audience! A popular sports magazine said it best: "Your skin and muscles loosen and relax from the increased blood circulation," adding that, if muscles are injured: "A sauna session increases blood flow to the injured area, bringing nutrients to help repair the damage." Using a sauna daily will help relieve muscle pain by helping your body reduce lactic acid while increasing mobility.

Soothe Arthritis Pain

It is also thought that a sauna is one method of using heat to treat arthritis and is a drug-free alternative, making it a safe and ideal environment for relieving pain. Arthritis can cause acute pain but is more likely to be long lasting chronic pain. People must learn how to live with this type of condition, as there is no known cure. If you have arthritis, a sauna may be an answer to life with a lot less pain and a lot more enjoyment.

Time with Family & Friends

How can many leisure activities targeted at relaxation be readily enjoyed at any time, day or night, without ever leaving home? The answer is practically none! A recent survey of swimming pool owners revealed that many only enjoyed their pools a few dozen times a year, and jetted bathtubs are also used very infrequently! In contrast, a sauna heats up quickly and is designed to maintain the user's heat therapy temperature consistently. As a result, it's always ready on demand and waiting to be used for fun and relaxation - 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year!

Year-Round Fun

A recent survey on usage revealed that sauna owners have fun in their saunas an average of 150 times a year! Sauna's are designed to maintain the heat therapy temperature you set them at, so your sauna is always ready and waiting for you. Setting the sauna heat therapy temperature in a Northern Leisure Sauna is so easy due to its simple controls. Regular sauna use will improve your mood as it is naturally relaxing. Few moments in life come close to the sheer pleasure of being surrounded by friends or family on a crisp, cold night.

Northern Leisure Saunas Authentically Northern

Northern Leisure Saunas are the perfect complement to your Canadian backyard. They blend into the landscape and accessorize your home or cabin – all thanks to the aesthetically-pleasing authentic Canadian red cedar construction. Not only do they look great, they also operate with ease and are built to last through the often inclement weather we are accustomed to here in the North.

"Northern Leisure does a great job. They truly are a homegrown, grassroots business. We work along side them often and use them for all our saunas. This is our personal one along with some job site ones. I think what separates Northern from other companies is their customer services, quality and exceptional variety. Highly recommend them!"

Georgian Ranger

"I just want to say how helpful and patient the staff was with me during the time of purchase of our new sauna from Northern Leisure Saunas! The Installation team was professional, very knowledgeable, and left my property as clean as it was when they arrived! Thank you Henry I would recommend you and your team to everyone!"

Porch or No Porch? Why or Why Not Include One on Your Sauna?

The addition of an aesthetically pleasing porch to your sauna offers benefits before and after each use. It's a place to remove dirty shoes/slippers before you enter to help keep the inside cleaner. And after your sauna session, it's a practical, private place that is sheltered from rain or snow, so you have time to cool down.

Electric or Wood-Burning Sauna Stove? Which Should You Choose?

Heating your sauna is a choice between practicality and functionality. Our Canadian saunas come standard with a high-performance electric heater because it's faster and easier. Wood-burning stoves are more authentic and are usually found in remote cottages or places with a lot of land between the nearest electrical hook-up.

Mini Buyer's Guide to Saunas: 5 Things to Consider

FIRST: Pick a good spot! It's your backyard centrepiece. SECOND: Make sure the location is flat, away from property lines and close to electricity. THIRD: Pick the type of sauna you want. FOURTH: Decide on the sauna size between 6 to 10 feet long (remember, smaller ones heat up faster). FIFTH: Electric stoves are standard. Wood burning stoves require a chimney and 10 feet of clearance from surrounding buildings.

Choosing Between Barrel Saunas and Cube Saunas

All Northern Leisure Saunas provide the same health benefits, so focus on looks. Barrel saunas are conversation pieces and give you a feel of being in a submarine. Cube saunas are more traditional and can pair nicely with your cabin or home, because they tend to look more like a shed or tiny house. Remember, the smaller the sauna the faster it heats up.

Classic Cabin Saunas: An Authentic Backyard Accessory

Many people like the classic cabin look of our saunas because that's how they were built for centuries in Finland. They legitimately look like cabins. Others choose the cabin style to help appease troublesome Homeowners' Association rules they have in their neighbourhoods. Like a mother-in-law suite adjacent to your house, cabin saunas provide the feel of a home away from your home.

Modern Saunas Offer a Luxurious Twist to Tradition

Our modern saunas enhance the old school classic look by integrating the tradition of the precision-crafted outdoor home sauna with the demands of today. You'll notice things like more expansive windows to let more light in and provide you with extra gazing angles toward the outside. In addition, we have added more zinc coating from the roof to the siding, which is a nod to the harsh winters.

All Northern Leisure Saunas Provide an Added Benefit – Aromatherapy

The Canadian red cedar used in our saunas is not just visually appealing, it also brings aromatherapy to your backyard and your lifestyle. The scent of cedar is unmistakable. While people love it, critters don't. The smell that helps us breathe better, also acts as a natural deodorizer, repelling insects and helping prevent mildew growth.

Introducing Our Premium Cold Plunge Tub

Recover Like Athletes Do

Unless you have been a competitive athlete or have parented a child who travels all over the region competing in the highest level of their chosen sport, the concept of cold-water therapy might be chilling to you. Why would anybody want to get into a tank of cold water purposefully?

Our Cold Plunge Tubs will help you lead a happier, healthier lifestyle if you want to delay the onset of sore muscles, feel less tired, or treat inflammation.

For Sore Muscles, our Cold Plunge Tubs work to constrict your blood vessels. Your blood flow slows down enough to relieve much of the painful feeling and swelling you are experiencing in your muscles after physical activity.

It doesn't have to be that you went for a run or played in a badminton tournament. Cold Plunge Tubs will help your muscles if you've been standing a lot at work, walking your dog, or using muscles you haven't used in a while.

Feel Less Exhausted our Cold Plunge Tubs provide cold water therapy to help re-exhilarate you and put you in a more positive mindset because of certain brain chemicals released when you are chilling. The result is that you get a second wind to get through the rest of your day.

Muscle Inflammation, our Cold Plunge Tubs can assist with widespread concerns such as tendonitis or bursitis. The therapy provided by the cold water serves as an anti-inflammatory without having to take medicine. The affected area becomes numb, and the pain, swelling or tenderness you feel subsides as your circulation improves.
